

Paragraph

Write this paragraph on the lines given below.

A torch is usually made of a wooden stave with one end soaked in combustible material. It is ignited and used as a light source. Torches have been used throughout history. They are still used in processions, religious events and in juggling entertainment.

Date :

Name :