

Paragraph

Write this paragraph on the lines given below.

A statue is a model of a person made with bronze, clay, wood or wax. Statues are often at the same size as the real person. Usually there is some writing on a statue to say who the person is. This writing is called an epigraph. The statue may be standing on a base called as a plinth.

Date :

Name :